

LANDLORD BOB'S WEEK#4 DISTRICT CLASS AA TEAM RANKINGS

We're starting to learn from week to week now who will be there in the end. The Mid Penn conference is all but written down on paper, likewise the L-L barring near disaster for Donegal.

This week's theme features a number of individual tournaments and a few dual events. The first week of the New Year will feature several key bouts that will determine the placement and qualifications for the end of the season.

Let's review the weeks past and what's in the cards for the upcoming week.

Shall we...

1. Boiling Springs (11-0) – The Bubblers rolled through three matches this prior week – Shippensburg 55-18, Milton Hershey 42-19, and then destroyed Mechanicsburg 42-21. The Bubblers have set the stage for their January run. It's a safe bet that the folks in York Springs or Topton will be looking to derail the train.

Next Up: 12/19 Boiling Springs Tournament

2. Bermudian Springs (3-1) – Working their way back, the Eagles took out two York County foes in both Eastern York (56-9) as well as Fairfield (76-6). The Eagles take their stake to Pittsburgh to fend off the Western Pa boys later this week.

Next Up: 12/29-12/30 @ West Mifflin Tournament

3. Brandywine Heights (4-1) – Hey what can you say; the Bullets left their mark on Kutztown (84-0). This week they wrestle in the competitive Governor Mifflin Tournament.

Next Up: 12/29-12/30 @ Governor Mifflin Tournament

4. (Tie) Juniata (7-1) – I guess you could say I'm keeping them tied until they meet or another significant event occurs. The tribe waxed Halifax on their way to another Tri-Valley dual meet victory.

Next Up: 12/28 Juniata Christmas Duals

Upper Dauphin Area (9-0) – Two back to back dual victories; the first against Midd-West (58-15) and the second against Columbia on the road (55-18). Who claims rights to the Tri-Valley (District 3AA) top spot remains to be seen.

Next Up: 12/28-12/29 Donegal Holiday Tournament

6. Hanover (7-2) – The Hawks faced a postponement and rallied with a 62-12 smoking of York Suburban. They will host their second of the Hanover dual tour this week with the “Snacktown Duals”

Next Up: 12/30 Snacktown Duals

7. Donegal (6-2) – Beat their AA rival ELCO at home to maintain pace as the front runner in the L-L for post season activity.

Next Up: 12/28-12/29 Donegal Christmas Tournament

8. Biglerville (5-0) –The Cannerys worked their way to 5-0 on the season and a possible top two seed at the ELCO duals with 3 wins.

Next Up: 12/29 @ ELCO Duals

9. Milton Hershey (8-1) – The Spartans saw their chances at a MPC title slip away when they dropped a 42-19 decision to top ranked Boiling Springs. A much needed period off ensues as the Spartans return to the mats January 9th.

Next Up: Off

10. Eastern Lebanon County (2-1) – The Raiders lost a heartbreaker to Donegal in what probably costed them a conference championship.

Next Up: 12/29 ELCO Duals

11. Littlestown (2-1) – Had their dual with Hanover rescheduled to the beginning of January.

Next Up: 12/29-12/30 @ Delone Catholic Christmas Tournament

12. Hamburg (7-3) – Was a match away from a perfect week however dropped a contest to MCA that was winnable. Will travel to Lancaster County for the Conestoga Valley Holiday Classic later this week.

Next Up: 12/29-12/30 @ Conestoga Valley Holiday Classic

13. Camp Hill (10-3) – Moved to 10-3 with a big victory over Susquehanna Twp.

Next Up: 12/30 @ Newport Christmas Tournament

14. Delone Catholic (7-2) – Remained on track in the YAIAA II with two wins over both Northeastern and York Suburban; Hosts their own tournament this week.

Next Up: 12/29-12/30 Delone Catholic Christmas Tournament

15. Schuylkill Valley (6-3) – Stayed in the show with a couple of nice wins at the KSA Tournament.

Next Up: 12/28-12/29 @ Christmas City Tournament (Bethlehem)

16. Pequea Valley (5-0) – Beat Northern Lebanon 51-21 to remain within sight of Donegal & ELCO in the L-L race.

Next Up: 12/29 @ Ridley Holiday Tournament

HM- Oley Valley 4-5