

LANDLORD BOB'S WEEK #5 DISTRICT III CLASS AA TEAM RANKINGS

There was a tad of movement in the rankings over the Holiday. This week features a couple of key duals that will impact the rankings over the next week. Also, the Canner Duals will feature three to four of our mentioned teams.

I will hope to have a "LLB's Commentary" together by next week discussing December results and some mail that I have received from the fans. If you have any last minute questions please forward them to me over the next few days.

Week 5 for your viewing pleasure...

1. Boiling Springs (11-0) – The Bubblers took honors at their own tournament with 5 champs and a 6 point difference over Bedford to win the team title. They are back on the Mid-Penn trail this week.

Next Up: 1/04 @ Greencastle; 1/05-1/06 @ Tool City Tournament in Meadville

2. Bermudian Springs (3-1) – The Eagles continue to keep pace with 2 champions and the team crown at West Mifflin. We're about a week or so away from witnessing some key collisions involving the Eagles.

Next Up: 1/04 Northeastern; 1/06 @ Dallastown Tournament

3. Brandywine Heights (4-1) – The crew from Topton was nipped at the wire by Boyertown and finished 2nd in the Governor Mifflin Tournament by a half point. This is a key week featuring an important league match plus a trip to Biglerville where they should be seeded in the Top 3.

Next Up: 1/3 Hamburg; 1/05-1/06 @ Canner Duals

4. (Tie) Juniata (12-1) – The tribe grabbed top honors by taking their own Christmas Duals with an outstanding 5-0 record. Juniata will be off until January 11th.

Next Up: 1/11 Midd-West; 1/12 @ UDA

Upper Dauphin Area (9-0) – Finished second at the Donegal Tournament to Red Land by 5 points. The Trojans had two titlists in the Tournament. The "Tie" shall be broken in 9 days.

Next Up: 1/12 Juniata

6. Hanover (11-3) – Went 4-1 at the Snacktown Duals losing to Northern York in the second round. The cross-town rivalry renews itself this week.

Next Up: 1/04 @ Delone Catholic

7. Biglerville (10-0) - The Canners went east this past week and came home with a Dual Championship at ELCO. The York starts to heat up this week as the Canners host Littlestown for what will most likely be for a bid in the postseason.

Next up: 1/04 Littlestown; 1/05-1/06 Canner Duals

8. Donegal (6-2) – The Indians finished 6th in their own tournament. Dips into the Lancaster – Lebanon conference foes this week.

Next Up: 1/04 @ Hempfield

9. Eastern Lebanon Co (9-4) – Had a fairly strong week and a good showing in their own duals. This week's menu features two L-L AA foes. The Raiders need to clean up the rest of the division to ensure another postseason trip.

Next Up: 1/04 @ Pequea Valley; 1/06 @ Columbia

10. Milton Hershey (8-1) – The Spartans were idle over the past week.

Next Up: 1/09 East Pennsboro

11. Littlestown (2-1) – Finished a very respectable third place at the Delone Tournament with 4 champs. The Bolts have an extended stay in AppleTown this week.

Next Up: 1/04 @ Biglerville; 1/05-1/06 Canner Duals (Biglerville)

12. Hamburg (7-3) – Had a nice run at the Conestoga Valley Tournament with a Seventh place finish and 1 champion. They will get their shot at the #3 overall and #1 team in Berks AA this week.

Next Up: 1/3 @ Brandywine Heights; 1/5 @ RCC

13. Camp Hill (10-3) - The Lions kept rolling with a Championship at Newport this past week. They have two manageable matches this week but can't sleep on Ship.

Next Up: 1/04 @ Shippensburg; 1/06 James Buchanan

14. Schuylkill Valley (7-3) – Finished 6th at the Christmas City Tournament.

Next Up: 1/03 @ Oley Valley; 1/06 Pottsville

15. Delone Catholic (5-2) – Finished 5th in their own Tournament in McSherrystown. Will face their cross-town enemy this week at home.

Next Up: 1/04 Hanover

16. Pequea Valley (5-0) – Finished 10th at the Ridley Tournament. They can put themselves in the L-L mix with a win against ELCO.

Next Up: 1/04 ELCO

HM- Oley Valley 4-5
