

LANDLORD BOB'S WEEK #6 DISTRICT III CLASS AA TEAM RANKINGS

A great week with some upsets and highs and lows for ranked teams. Guess what - it's only going to get better with a ton of big league matches coming up.

This time period is a meat grinder especially for the York which packs 3 matches into a 7-8 day period.

With that said, here we go...

1. Boiling Springs (12-0) – Destroyed Greencastle and made their way through Tool City in Meadville with a 4th place finish against some heavy competition. They will need to keep the heat on with a match this week against MPC foe Camp Hill.

Next Up: 1/11 Camp Hill

2. Bermudian Springs (7-2) – Stayed in the Hunt for the top spot with 3 wins at the Dallastown Duals and a league win versus Northeastern.

Next Up: 1/11 @ York Tech; 1/13 Delone Catholic

3. Brandywine Heights (10-2) – I know what your saying, a convincing win over 6 teams at the Canner Duals and Brandywine stays at #3. Here's my point. Bermudian dropped a match to AAA Central Dauphin, Brandywine dropped a huge league match to Hamburg. As far as I'm concerned if Brandywine beats Hamburg it's a whole different story.

Next Up: 1/9 Emmaus; 1/10 @ Reading; 1/12-1/13 @ BCIAA Ind. Tournament

4. (Tie) Juniata (12-1) – The tribe has been off after their conquest of the Christmas duals. This week gets real interesting with another dual meet tour and their annual donnybrook versus UDA.

Next Up: 1/11 Mid-West; 1/12 @ UDA; 1/13 Juniata Sr./Jr. Duals

Upper Dauphin (9-0) – The Trojans were also off saving their energy for Friday nights tilt.

Next Up: 1/12 Juniata

6. Hanover (12-3) – Picked up a big win versus cross-town rival Delone. The Hawks are off this week to prepare for next weeks monster schedule.

Next Up: 1/15 @ Daniel Boone Duals

7. Hamburg (9-3) – The Hawks came up huge this week with victories over Brandywine and Reading Central Catholic. That's one giant step towards a huge post season berth.

Next Up: 1/9 @ Wyomissing; 1/12-1/13 @ BCIAA Ind. Tournament

8. Biglerville (16-1) A win over Brandywine might have vaulted the Cannons into the top 3 spots. Still, this weekend was very successful for a team as young as this. The hard work is yet to come but there is no reason not to believe that the Cannons can't get a single digit seed in the post season.

Next Up: 1/11 York Suburban

9. Donegal (7-2) – Came up big with a smashing of AAA Hempfield. They will be tested by the rest of the L-L competition this week.

Next Up: 1/11 Lancaster Catholic; 1/13 Northern Lebanon/Annville @ A-C

10. Milton Hershey (8-1) – The Spartans start the machine back up again after some time off.

Next Up: 1/9 East Pennsboro; 1/11 @ Susquehanna Twp.; 1/13 @ Juniata Duals

11. Eastern Lebanon CO. (11-4) – Picked up two huge league wins to keep their post season plans up to date.

Next Up: 1/10 Northern Lebanon

12. Camp Hill (12-3) – The Lions picked up two wins versus MPC foes this week. They will get a shot at the Bubblers later this week.

Next Up: 1/9 @ Greencastle; 1/11 @ Boiling Springs

13. Schuylkill Valley (12-3) – Cleared the path with three more wins this past week. The Panthers are putting themselves right into the Berks mix.

Next Up: 1/10 Reading Central Catholic; 1/12-1/13 @ BCIAA Ind. Tournament

14. Pequea Valley (5-1) – Took one on the chin this week with a tough league loss to ELCO. They can right the ship this week if they can pick up a couple of wins.

Next Up: 1/11 Annville Cleona; 1/13 Columbia

15. Littlestown (5-4) – The Bolts didn't have the best of weeks but salvaged the week with a 3-3 record at the Canner Duals. This week match is for the #4 bid out of York.

Next Up: 1/11 Delone Catholic; 1/13 @ Eastern York

16. Delone Catholic (7-3) – In the next week we will find out what the Squires are made of.

Next Up: 1/11 @ Littlestown; 1/13 @ Bermudian Springs

HM: Susquenita (7-5)
