

LANDLORD BOB'S WEEK #7 DISTRICT III CLASS AA TEAM RANKINGS

Wild is all I can say. The conferences are starting to shake themselves out even though there could be some wild finishes among the crowds.

We do know this: everybody back to 12th in the rankings has pretty much locked themselves in the postseason. The York still needs a week or so to straighten itself out but the major players are there and all lined up with some key clashes looming.

Two matches to keep an eye on this week are the Brandywine/Schuylkill Valley match and the Biglerville vs. Delone/Hanover matches.

It's getting to be that time of year...

1. Boiling Springs (13-0) – The Bubs had a washing of MPC foe Camp Hill (55-15) and are well on their way to a probable #1 seed in the postseason.

Next Up: 1/17 @ Palmyra; 1/18 @ East Pennsboro

2. Bermudian Springs (9-2) – Put the wrapping on both York tech and Delone to set things up with Hanover & Biglerville for the Top spot in the YAIAA.

Next Up: 1/16 Littlestown; 1/18 @ York Suburban

3. Brandywine Heights (9-2) – Stayed in contention for the Berks title with a win over Reading and a Team championship in convincing fashion at the Berks Invite. Things get real dicey this week with 3 matches and a big match with SV.

Next Up: 1/16 @ Schuylkill Valley; 1/17 @ Tulpehocken; 1/20 Wyomissing

4. Juniata (18-1) – The tribe claimed the #1 position out of the Tri-Valley with a big win over UDA last Friday. They rolled several teams in the Juniata Sr/Jr Duals.

Next Up: 1/18 East Juniata; 1/20 Juniata Duals

5. Hanover (13-3) – Stayed on pace with Biglerville and Bermudian with a win over Littlestown this past week. The Hawks host the Cannons in a key bout Thursday night.

Next Up: 1/16 @ West York; 1/18 Biglerville; 1/20 @ Fairfield

6. Hamburg (9-3) – The Hawks control their destiny in the Berks. They finished 3rd in the BCIAA Invite behind Brandywine and Schuylkill Valley. The latter they match up against next week.

Next Up: 1/16 @ Tulpehocken; 1/18 Kutztown; 1/20 Juniata Duals

7. Biglerville (17-1) – The Cannons picked up another win this week and remain tied for the top spot in the York. This week opens up the post season picture and will begin to tell us the “Who, What, & Where”.

Next Up: 1/16 Delone Catholic; 1/18 @ Hanover; 1/20 @ West York

8. Upper Dauphin (9-1) – The Trojans weren’t quite up to the task against Juniata. Still they look to be a definite postseason contender with the 2nd place out of the Tri-Valley.

Next Up: 1/17 Newport; 1/19-1/20 SIAA Tournament

9. Donegal (10-2) – Wrapped up three more league matches and sets up a big conference dual with Pequea next week.

Next Up: 1/17 @ Columbia; 1/9-1/20 L-L league Tournament

10. Schuylkill Valley (16-3)- Picked up a couple more wins this week and takes a big jump in the rankings after a 2nd place finish in the BCIAA Invite. The next two weeks action sets things up for placement and a AA Champion of the Berks.

Next Up: 1/16 Brandywine; 1/17 @ Fleetwood

11. Milton Hershey (13-2) – The Spartans picked up where they left off with a couple of nice wins and a heartbreaker to Juniata this week. They should be able to breeze into the team tournament from here on out.

Next Up: 1/18 James Buchanan

12. Eastern Lebanon CO. (13-4) – Stayed on pace to pick up the #2 bid out of the L-L.

Next Up: 1/17 @ Annville-Cleona; 1/19-1/20 @ L-L League Tournament

13. Camp Hill (13-4) – The Lions split the week with a victory and a tough loss to #1 overall Boiling Springs.

Next Up: 1/20 Palmyra

14. Pequea Valley (7-1) – Kept the machine rolling and picked up a few more victories this week. They will need to knock off Donegal and get some help to get the #1 bid out of the L-L.

Next Up: 1/17 @ Lancaster Catholic; 1/19-1/20 L-L league Tournament

15. Littlestown (6-5) – The Bolts dropped a match to Hanover but then rebounded to most likely clinch a spot in the postseason with wins over Delone and Eastern.

Next Up: 1/16 @ Bermudian Springs; 1/18 West York; 1/20 Gettysburg Tour.

16. Susquenita (7-5) – Enters for the first time this season in the final spot. Will need some help to break into the postseason.

Next Up: 1/18 Hershey; 1/22 @ Cedar Cliff

HM: Delone Catholic (7-5); Newport 6-5
