

LANDLORD BOB'S WEEK #8 DISTRICT III CLASS AA TEAM RANKINGS

Few exceptions to the rule this week as it was another wild week on the AA mats. Biglerville pretty much put themselves in a 3 way tie for either 3rd/4th and then dug their way out and into 2nd place.

The pressure in the York this week turns to Bermudian who has two toughies both on the road to win the conference crown.

The MPC is safe but again it looks like Susquenita won't be in the post season. The Berks has Hamburg and Brandywine 1 and 2 but Schuylkill Valley looks to throw a wrench in the whole deal when they face off with Hamburg this week.

The TriValley is decided with UDA's win over Newport. The L-L is all but set with Pequea trying to upend AA leader Donegal this week.

We will have our yearly D3AATT predictions next week at this time as this will be the last actual week for the rankings.

Here's my final fab 16 for the 2006-2007 season...

1. Boiling Springs (15-0) – Rolled a pair of MPC foes to remain unbeaten and is probably a safe bet to be your #1 seed in the DIII AATT.

Next Up: District III Class AA Team Championships; 2/8 @ Big Spring

2. Bermudian Springs (11-2) – Won a closer than expected match against L-Town then trounced York Suburban. This week is "rivalry" week as the Eagles must go on the road to defend the York 2 title against Hanover and Biglerville.

Next Up: 1/25 @ Hanover; 1/27 @ Biglerville

3. Brandywine Heights (14-2) – The Bullets wrapped up the number 2 bid out of the Berks with 3 wins this week. They can prove their worth this week with a strong performance at the BCIAA Team Championships.

Next Up: 1/24 Reading Central Catholic; 1/27 @ BCIAA Team Championships

4. Juniata (28-3) – Finished 2nd place at the Juniata Duals dropping a 47-19 decision to Mount Union. They will have 1 step until the D3AATT.

Next Up: 1/26 Juniata Quad; District III Class AA team Tournament.

5. Biglerville (18-2) – A week of highs and lows the Cannors at least ended the week with a major high beating Hanover and setting up a key showdown this Saturday against rival Bermudian. They will have to get out of Lancaster County with a win first.

Next Up: 1/24 @ Columbia; 1/27 Bermudian Springs

6. Hamburg (15-5) – With the exception of a pair of losses at the Juniata Duals it was a pretty successful week for the Hawks. They have a tough week with a dual against a very good Schuylkill Valley team and a possible rematch with Brandy at the BCIAA Team Championships.

Next Up: 1/24 Schuylkill Valley; 1/27 BCIAA Team Championships

7. Upper Dauphin (10-1) – Finished the week locking up the 2nd place in Tri-Valley with a win over Newport. Gets their shot at the “bear” known as Line Mountain this week.

Next Up: 1/25 @ Line Mountain; 1/27 Panther Valley Tri-meet

8. Hanover (18-4) – With duals against Bermudian and Eastern this week the Hawks can definitely salvage their season.

Next Up: 1/22 Eastern York; 1/25 @ Bermudian Springs; 1/27 @ Altoona Duals

9. Donegal (11-2) – The Indians had a rough finish at the L-L Tournament and looks to be your highest seed entering the DIIIAATT from the L-L.

Next Up: 1/25 Pequea Valley; 1/27 @ Buckskin Duals

10. Milton Hershey (13-3) – The number two out of the MPC picked off James Buchanan this week. Gets two MPC challenges this week.

Next Up: 1/25 @ Palmyra; 1/27 Red Land

11. Eastern Lebanon County (18-5) – Beat Annville and finished 12th at the L-L Tournament to prep for the post season.

Next Up: 1/25 Lancaster Catholic

12. Schuylkill Valley (17-4) – The Panthers were on a roll until they got derailed by a very good Brandywine Heights team.

Next Up: 1/24 @ Hamburg; 1/27 BCIAA Team Tournament

13. Camp Hill (14-4) – The Lions notched another win this week and right or wrong will be the third team out of the MPC.

Next Up: 1/26 @ East Pennsboro; 1/27 Williams Valley

14. Pequea Valley (8-1) – Stays in line for the 3rd bid out of the L-L. Gets their chance at Donegal this week.

Next Up: 1/25 @ Donegal; 1/27 @ Octorara Tournament

15. Littlestown (10-8) – The T-Bolts stayed alive when they got some good news from the B-Ville/Hanover ordeal. The Bolts went 4-3 this week and will most likely grab the 15th seed in the Tournament with wins over Fairfield and York Tech.

Next Up: 1/25 Fairfield; 1/27 York Tech

16. Susquenita (8-5) – It will be a shame but it will be another year at home for the Blackhawk's of Cove. They would need two major shockers this week and LLB just doesn't think they'll get it.

Next Up: @ 1/22 Cedar Cliff; 1/25 @ Middletown

HM- Delone Catholic 9-7; Wyomissing 4-7; Newport 7-7
